

Glasgow FrontRunners

Committee Role Profiles

RACE-TRAINING SECRETARY

All Committee members should:

- Be responsible for the governance of the club
- Participate in the strategic development
- Welcome and support runners of all abilities, according to personal running ability
- Regularly attend Club runs, social events and races
- Adhere to club Policies and Procedures

The Race-Training Secretary should:

- Plan training sessions for the group and manage the provision of individual training plans for members
- Manage training routes, providing reports on the successes of these to the committee
- Ensure a suitably qualified coaching team, organise succession planning, and provide access to relevant Scottish Athletics qualifications
- Manage the calendar of races and results, communicating this to the committee and members
- Organise Club races, internal and involving other Clubs
- Convene ad hoc meetings with jog leaders